The project methodology followed a "Six-Step-Model" in order to combine the employment and the educational sectors.

The model includes:

- Identification of a professional area*
- Identification of the 3 major occupations (in the area)*
- Definition of the 4-5 main activities of each occupation*
- Definition of the core competences for each activity*
- Choice of the learning outcomes of the programme*
- Design of the model curriculum structure*

Do you agree with this structure?

- a Yes
- b Partly
- c Not at all
- d Structure is unknown

If ticked 'yes' or 'partly', what are the advantages of the model?
